The world's largest bunkering event - the Singapore International Bunkering Conference and Exhibition (SIBCON) returns on 2-5 October 2018 at Resorts World Sentosa, Singapore. Organized by the Maritime and Port Authority of Singapore (MPA), SIBCON 2018 will convene more than 1,600 participants including suppliers, traders, ship owners and operators from over 70 countries.

Hear from key decision makers from the shipping and marine fuels community as they outline market potential, growth segments, and strategies to operate in the current environment.

SIBCON 2018 will be about inspiring change, rethinking scenarios and collaborating with a common purpose of growing the business and industry at large. This is your opportunity to connect, engage and succeed!
