

SCMA DISTINGUISHED SPEAKER SERIES 2018

CHINA AS AN ECONOMIC SUPERPOWER & SINGAPORE'S ROLE IN THE BELT & ROAD INITIATIVE

The rise of China as an economic superpower has a profound impact on Asia. China's Belt and Road Initiative (BRI) promises a wave of development and business opportunities for countries along the BRI corridors.

Join us for an exclusive and rare glimpse into the minds of Chinese businesses as we hear from this year's Distinguished Speaker, Dr Yu Jianlong, Secretary General of the China Chamber of International Commerce (CCOIC). Dr Yu will share Chinese perspectives on the foreseeable opportunities and challenges that may arise from the different and dynamic business and legal environments along the BRI.

Following Dr Yu's address, Mr Hee Theng Fong, consultant at Eversheds Harry Elias and director of the Singapore Chinese Culture Centre and the Chinese Development Assistance Council, will chair a three-way discussion between Dr Yu and other panellists. The Panel will discuss specific business and legal risks that may arise and discuss the Chinese approach to resolving cross-border BRI disputes. The Panel will also explore various Chinese and regional ADR initiatives, and discuss Singapore's continuing role in providing truly neutral and effective dispute resolution services.
