SCMA PERSPECTIVES SERIES: CROSS-EXAMINATION IN INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION

MR. GREG LAUGHTON SC

Mr. Greg Laughton SC is a leading silk with chambers in Sydney and London. He was awarded the Australian Arbitration Barrister of the Year in the Lawyer Monthly Legal Awards and selected by his peers to be included in the Best Lawyers in Australia for his work in international arbitration. Mr. Laughton SC's practice includes complex cross-border maritime and transportation law, commodities, and commercial law, amongst others.

From evidence about liability or breach, to the quantity of loss or damages, the resolution of maritime disputes makes significant use of expert evidence. There are guiding principles of cross-examination in international arbitration that must be grasped to gain mastery of the skill. This seminar seeks to refresh, reinforce and expand upon the tenets of cross-examinations. Barrister and Arbitrator, Mr. Greg Laughton SC, will discuss the need for and the general rules of cross-examination, including the methods, styles, and psychology. Attendees can also expect to learn about analysing expert evidence, preparing for cross-examination of experts, effectively cross-examining experts, and the different style needed when experts give evidence together, i.e., "hot-tubbing". The knowledge shared by Mr. Laughton SC should assist:

EXPERTS to understand how their evidence would be treated by the cross-examiner;

ADVOCATES to learn the fundamentals of how to effectively cross-examine witnesses, including experts; and ARBITRATORS to understand how expert evidence is likely to be analysed, questioned, and used by parties.
