ABOUT THE SEMINAR

In this seminar, Stephen Kenny KC will discuss the origins of the tort of conspiracy, and its current division into conspiracy to use unlawful means and conspiracy to injure without using unlawful means.

This talk will explore

- the development of the tort of conspiracy
- its relationship with the recently-recognised tort of causing harm by unlawful means
- potential advantages in formulating a claim in terms of a conspiracy do harm by unlawful means
- issues of pleading and proof
- possible developments in Singapore law
