SIARB-SCMA MARITIME ARBITRATOR'S FELLOWSHIP COURSE 2022

Hybrid
7 September - 7 November 2022

DESCRIPTION

The SIArb-SCMA Maritime Arbitrator's Fellowship Course ("Course") will be offered by the Singapore Institute of Arbitrators ("SIArb") in conjunction with Singapore Chamber of Maritime Arbitration ("SCMA").

The Course will comprise SIArb's Fellowship Assessment Course ("FAC") which will be held in a hybrid format, and the SCMA's Maritime Arbitrator Accreditation Programme ("MAAP") which will be held in person.

This Course is suitable for current and aspiring maritime arbitrators.

COURSE SYNOPSIS   Download course brochure here.

FELLOWSHIP ASSESSMENT COURSE (FAC)
This Course consists of 6 modules with a total of 9 lectures, 6 practical workshops, and an award writing examination.

MARITIME ARBITRATOR ACCREDITATION PROGRAMME (MAAP)
SCMA's MAAP will be held in person on 14 October 2022 and consists of 2 modules and a written assessment.

- Module 1: The Legal Framework: Litigation & Maritime Arbitration
- Module 2: The SCMA Framework

The MAAP course outline can be found here.

MAAP FACULTY   More details of the Faculty can be found here.

Mr Andrew Moran QC
Resident, The Arbitration Chambers

Mr Prem Gurbani
Arbitrator, Mediator, and Counsel

COURSE FEES

SCMA and SIArb members will enjoy discounted course fees.

FIND OUT MORE AND REGISTER HERE