

SCMA Evening Talk Duty of Disclosure

The Hon. Sir Bernard Eder / Christopher Smith QC
The Hon. Justice Anselmo Reyes

DATE	TIME	VENUE
10 December 2019	6.30pm - 9.00 pm	Capital Tower Level 9

Overview

Rule 15 of the SCMA Rules requires an arbitrator to be independent and impartial. Section 33 of the English Arbitration Act 1996 requires arbitrators to act fairly and impartially between the parties, but with no separate obligation of independence.

With reference to "Halliburton v Chubb", this event will examine the Court of Appeal judgment from an English law perspective and consider the extent to which it offers useful guidance in the application of Rules 15 & 16 of the SCMA Rules.

Programme

1830 - Registration & Reception
1925 - Opening Remarks
1930 - The Hon. Sir Bernard Eder & Christopher Smith QC
2000 - The Hon. Justice Anselmo Reyes
2020 - Q&A
2030 - Drinks & Networking
2100 - End of Event

Registration Fee

SCMA Members: $20
ICS Members: $25
Non-Members: $30