Singapore-Dalian Maritime Arbitration Seminar

新加坡-大连海事仲裁实务研讨会
14 Sep (Tue) 2021 | 1.30pm to 3.30pm

INVITATION TO REGISTER

Singapore is a maritime gateway, and a centre of choice for maritime arbitration in Asia.

Dalian is a key port city in Northeast Asia, and a regional shipping hub. Its shipping network connects Bohai Bay and the Northeast China region to more than 300 destinations in over 160 countries. As Dalian continues to build its maritime economy and its role as the shipping centre of Northeast Asia, this space presents prospects for exchanges and collaborations.

Enterprise Singapore, together with China Council for the Promotion of International Trade (CCPIT) Dalian and the China Maritime Arbitration Commission, are co-organising the Singapore-Dalian Maritime Arbitration Seminar to connect the maritime and professional services communities from both sides, and facilitate exchanges and outreach. This is a platform to help Singapore companies be better plugged into this space in China, especially amid this challenging period, and forge partnerships to seek opportunities together.

Seminar will help:

- Maritime communities to exchange on the latest industry trends, and uplift knowledge on the maritime legal expertise and arbitration services in both Singapore and China
- Professional services firms to connect with key maritime players and authorities, and expand business network for the Chinese and Southeast Asian markets
- Shippers, traders and logistics providers to network and expand their legal options, especially in the face of uncertainties brought about by the pandemic

The hybrid seminar will be hosted virtually on Tencent Meeting (腾讯会议) with a physical venue in Dalian, and we would like to invite you to participate and dial-in.
