

Quarterly Legal & Commercial Perspectives

~Jointly presented by SCMA & ICS Singapore Branch~

Often times, in shipping companies, legal implications of cases are not fed back to commercial departments. In order to proactively resolve this issue, SCMA and Institute of Chartered Shipbrokers (ICS) Singapore Branch will be hosting a quarterly series of Legal & Commercial Perspectives which will look at recently decided maritime-related cases and present both their commercial & legal implications. Join us for an enlightening discussion and hear from legal experts whose firms were directly involved in the cases along with commercial experts that have extensive industry experience.
