Dear WISTA Members and Friends,

Update on Panamanian Structures and a Panamanian Perspective on Corporate Solutions

WISTA Singapore is organizing a luncheon Seminar on 20th May, open to all members and friends.

Date : 20th May 2010 (Thursday)
Time : 12.30pm - 2.30pm
Venue : Maxwell Chambers
32 Maxwell Road
Singapore 069115
Price : SGD 35.00 nett for WISTA and MLAS members
SGD 50.00 nett for non-members
Speaker : Mr. Alexis Medina, LL.M, TEP
Morgan & Morgan Corporate Services Pte Ltd

Our speaker, Mr. Medina, will be providing a general overview of Panama as a corporate and maritime jurisdiction. He will also be discussing companies, civil law trusts and private foundations as tools to plan, protect and structure the many different types of assets.

About our speaker:

Mr. Alexis Medina was admitted to practice in the Republic of Panama in 1998 and since the beginning of 2010 is registered as a Foreign Practitioner in Singapore. He obtained a Master's degree in International Banking and Securities Regulation from the School of Law, Boston University in 1999. He is also a member of the Society of Trust and State Practitioners (STEP). He began his professional career at KPMG Panama before joining Dresdner Bank Lateinamerika AG Panama Branch (Trust Department) in 2000. He joined the Morgan & Morgan Group at the Group's Head Offices in Panama City in 2005 as a Trust Attorney – overseeing Private and Corporate clients dealing with Fiduciary and Corporate issues. He was appointed Executive Director of MMG Singapore office in 2008 heading the Group's latest Asian office to complement its worldwide network of offices.
