

Practising Lawyer in Singapore and Malaysia since 1990. Author of key Practitioners Texts Halsbury's Shipping Titles, Forms & Precedents on Shipping, Bullen & Leake Malaysia on Carriage, Annotated Merchant Shipping Laws. Member of ABLM, the Legal Subcommittee of FIATA

Dual qualified Singapore and Malaysian lawyer with over 30 years of experience, graduating with LLB 2nd Class Upper Honours from National University of Singapore, holder of LLM from University of Malaya. Handling both contentious and non-contentious matters. Core areas include Admiralty & Shipping, International Trade & Logistics, Marine & General Insurance and Reinsurance, Oil & Gas.

Empanelled with key Arbitral Institutes – LMAA, EMAC, AIAC, KCAB, HIAC, CAAI, ICC, LCIA, Stockholm.

Author of key Practitioners Texts. Adjunct Lecturer at BAC, Malaysia's largest law school. Member of the Expert Advisory Panel of the Malaysian Competition Commission and ABLM the Legal Subcommittee of FIATA.

Handled litigation cases in Singapore and Malaysia for direct clients and as Counsel for Law Firms. Details and reported cases upon request, including arguing the Inaugural Reported Decision of the Malaysian Admiralty Court, the only case in Singapore and Malaysia covering IMDG Code in detail, largest Oil & Gas Dispute in Malaysian Courts, the largest Oil & Gas Dispute in the Malaysian Courts against THHE for conversion of FPSO, Counsel in multiple disputes and claims in Court and Arbitration in Reinsurance Run Off Claims.

In 2016, he was shortlisted amongst the Top 5 Disputes Lawyers for Malaysia in the Asialaw Asia Pacific Dispute Resolution Awards.

Chambers in its 2021 Listing has described him: 'Philip is very knowledgeable and approachable, quickly grasping the situation and always quick to offer the correct advice. He is able to resolve matters to our satisfaction without the need of progressing to court.'

Chambers in its 2019 Listing said: 'Philip is a very senior lawyer with a long-standing presence in the market and a deep knowledge of maritime law. He has an impressive track record on shipping disputes, including arbitrations, and has notable experience advising on non-contentious mandates.'

Conducted arbitrations in Malaysia, Singapore and internationally as Arbitrator and Counsel.

More details of Philip's experience can be found on his Profile on LinkedIn:
<https://www.linkedin.com/in/philipteoh/>

Side Panel

PROFESSIONAL APPOINTMENTS

2017 Committee Member, ABLM, Legal Sub-Committee of FIATA

2018 Fellow, Hong Kong Society of Construction Adjudicators

2018 Pioneer Fellow, Asian Institute of Alternative Dispute Resolution (AIADR)

2020 Member, Expert Advisory Panel of Malaysian Competition Commission

Panel Arbitrator, Asian International Arbitration Centre (AIAC), London Maritime Arbitrators Association (LMAA, Supporting Overseas Member), International Chamber of Commerce (ICC), London Court of International Arbitration (LCIA), Korean Commercial Arbitration Board (KCAB), Hainan International Arbitration Court (HIAC), Chinese Arbitration Association International (CAAI), Brunei Darussalam Arbitration Centre (AABD), Stockholm Chamber of Commerce