

CORINA SONG

VICE-CHAIRPERSON

BRIEF PROFILE

Ms Song was admitted as a Solicitor of England & Wales in 1992 and called to the Singapore Bar in 1993. She joined Allen & Gledhill LLP in 1997 and is currently a partner in their Litigation & Disputes Resolution Department. Her practice covers shipping and international trade & commodities disputes, and she has acted in numerous arbitrations.

More recently, she has acted as Counsel for various owners and financial institutions in most of the major shipping insolvency cases.

Ms Song has been described as a highly esteemed litigator and a Leading Individual by The Legal 500 Asia Pacific for Shipping. She has also been acknowledged as a notable practitioner for her expertise in Restructuring and Insolvency. In Chambers Asia-Pacific, she is listed as a notable practitioner and described as one that commands “the respect of her peers and impresses clients with her handling of shipping mandates. She acts for banks on a variety of contentious shipping matters, including mortgage enforcement, insurance and insolvency of shipping companies.”

Ms Song has also been appointed to the Singapore International Arbitration Centre (SIAC) panel of arbitrators, the Maritime Panel of Associate Mediators of the Singapore Mediation Centre (SMC) and as a Course Facilitator (Admiralty Practice) by the Singapore Institute of Legal Education (SILE) for the Preparatory Course leading to the Singapore Bar examinations.

She is the current Vice Chair of the International Bar Association (IBA) Maritime & Transport Committee and Secretary of the Maritime Law Association of Singapore (MLAS), and was also the Vice President of the Singapore chapter of the Women’s International Shipping & Trading Association (WISTA) from 2007 to 2009.
